SHERIFF ARRESTS ALLEGED SWINDLER

W. C. Riffert, Charged with E. E. Heindel in Alleged Extensive Swindle of County Residents, Arrested by Sheriff Thompson.

Charged with being implicated in one of the most important swindling games carried on in this county for some time W. C. Riffert was arrested in Harrisburg by Sheriff G. K. Thompson and on Friday brought to Gettysburg. This morning he gave bail for appearance at Court. Riffert and E. E. Heindel, the latter of York, are accused of fleecing Adams county residents out of several thousand dollars in sums ranging from $500 to $2000 each.

Riffert and Heindel visited this county more than a year ago and offered for sale bonds—attractive in design—which were issued by the Bankers' Corporation Co., with offices in Philadelphia, as liens on an electric railway from Reading to Fredericksburg, Berks County. The men, it is alleged, represented that the road was built, which it has since developed is not correct.

The bonds were in the sum of $500 each and as a rule promissory notes were taken for them. The bonds were supposed to bear six per cent interest and the offer looked so attractive that many fell for the scheme. The notes were negotiated and when they came due it was up to the maker to pay the money. In one instance a perfectly good $500 bond of another company was given in part payment for one of the spurious securities.

Before Squire Harnish Allen J. March, of Abbotstown charged false pretense against Riffert and Heindel, telling of having purchased two of the $500 bonds; Mrs. Elizabeth Wolf of Abbotstown, charges having bought one; Lewis S. Wolf, of the same place one; and J. H. Dutta and Dr. W. R. Snyder, of New Oxford, one each. It is said that a number of others were caught but the two year limitation on a false pretense charge having expired they found it useless to lay information though some came to town to do so. One woman is said to have lost $2000 by the alleged swindle.

At January and April sessions of Court true bills were returned in the cases against Riffert and Heindel. The latter is said to be in Philadelphia at the present time while the former fell victim to Sheriff Thompson's prowess in Harrisburg.

The Sheriff heard that the man was in the Capital City and went there on Wednesday to get him. He called at the Riffert home and was told that the husband was away and that it was not known when he would return. Sheriff Thompson left and went to a telephone, calling up the Riffert home and posing as a friend of the man he wanted. The wife then gave him the information that Riffert would return home Thursday evening.

Posting himself within sight of the Riffert place on that evening he saw the man enter but was afraid to call for him for fear that he would escape by a rear fire escape which the local official had shown the foresight to investigate. He therefore waited out side and in a short time Mr. and Mrs. Riffert appeared. The husband crossed the street to a drug store where he was in the act of purchasing cigars when the sheriff quietly told him that he was wanted in Gettysburg on the charge above described.

Riffert made no demonstration but said the whole affair was a mistake, that they had practiced their "trade" in York county successfully, doing $100,000 worth of business there and having no trouble.

Friday Sheriff Thompson brought him here after having kept him in a Harrisburg hotel Thursday night, and he will now await trial at Court. Bail was placed at $4000 and this was furnished this morning.

BIGLERVILLE WILL PAVE TWO STREETS

Hustling Upper End Town Moves Rapidly in Street Improvement Campaign and Hopes to Pave Streets this Year.

The hustling town of Biglerville is making all haste to have their main street from East to West paved during the coming summer.

The council by a vote of six to one passed the ordinance which provides for the paving of the entire length of East and West York streets, one or more of the following materials to be used, macadam, sheet asphalt on concrete base, bitulithic, Filterstone, vitrified bricks or bricks on concrete base, cement with bitumin cover, or wood blocks.

E. E. Hewitt, of Gettysburg will draw up plans and specifications and bids will be asked for the various materials, no selection being made until these have been opened and the exact relative cost learned. The ordinance passed by the Biglerville town council provides among other things that the costs and expenses of the paving shall be apportioned as follows: two thirds thereof shall be paid by the owner or owners of real estate bounding and abutting on said streets by an equal assessment on the feet front, and one third of the cost and expenses shall be paid by the Borough of Biglerville, the same to be assessed and collected in accordance with the provisions of the Act or Acts of Assembly in such cases.

The Highway Committee of the Borough of Biglerville shall exercise supervision and control of the said work, with power to require that the same be done and performed in strict accordance with the terms of the contract, and the said Highway Committee may employ a competent engineer or surveyor to assist it in said supervision.

VICTIM IS BETTER

George Wilson, the Mont Alto sanitarium orderly shot by Edward Lichfield, is resting well. His temperature, pulse and respiration are about normal and unless complications arise he will recover.

In case Wilson pulls through, the charge against Lichfield will be assault and battery with intent to kill. It has been suggested that after he gets a hearing on this charge he might be returned to White Pine and there kept under guard until court.

It is not likely that Lichfield will be allowed to return to the camp. He broke two rules: having firearms and going out of bounds without permission. For these two offenses he stands dismissed from the institution, and would not be taken back if he were given his freedom by the law.

AGRICULTURE IN COUNTY SCHOOLS

Educators and Farmers of the State Meet in Harrisburg and Decide for Agricultural Instruction in the Rural Schools.

Two important resolutions to further agricultural teaching in the rural schools of the state were unanimously adopted Friday by the conference of the State Grange officials and representatives of the State Board of Education at Harrisburg which County Superintendent Roth took part.

The one sets forth that State Superintendent N. C. Schaeffer prepare a course of agricultural studies for fourth class district schools and that this course be started in the Fall. The second resolution endorses the measures in Congress providing for federal appropriations for the schools of the country so that agriculture, industrial arts and domestic science may be taught in all secondary schools.

State Superintendent Schaeffer endorsed the plan of giving the students in the country districts a course in agricultural study, saying it was just what he desired. He said that the teachers of fourth class districts and that the new course would be started when the schools open in September. Dr. Schaeffer and L. H. Dennis, the State Board's agricultural expert, will work out the plan.

As a result Adams County's boys and girls may expect lessons in agriculture during their next year's school term.

RIVAL CANDIDATES STUMP JERSEY

Roosevelt and Taft Are Warmly Greeted.

ENTHUSIASM FOR BOTH

Huge Crowds Turn Out In Various Parts of State to Cheer Their Candidates.

Camden, N. J., May 25.—Nothing of the spectacular was lacking in Colonel Roosevelt's tour of South Jersey, which began at Burlington and ended with enthusiastic demonstrations in Camden and Trenton.

There were huge and crushing crowds at every stopping place; there were thousands of men, women and children, and there was cheering and enthusiasm and shouting without bounds.

The strenuousness of the former president seemed to have been raised to the topmost pitch. That triumphal tour through Southern New Jersey, on the quest for twenty-eight delegates to the Republican national convention at Chicago was also a truly Rooseveltian affair, a glittering, gleeful gallop with the Rough Rider of San Juan Hill riding gayly ahead.

In all his speeches, and he delivered more than a score at as many different places, the colonel shot his sharp arrows at the bosses, and at their "misrepresentation of the people." Particularly in Camden did he make this point. No sooner had he mounted the platform in the center of the Third Regiment Armory and faced the lusty thousands than he commanded attention and with these words brought the house about his ears: "I want to point out to you," he said, "that there is not a boss on the platform." The great audience knew that he referred to the mass meeting of the evening before, when President Taft had spoken from the same platform.

The colonel also had frequent occasion to refer to the tariff. He declared that he is in favor of a protective tariff, but that furthermore he was in favor of the creation of some sort of a national bureau which would see to it that the wage workers got some benefit to allow business to make fair dividends.

And he had a word for the farmer, too, whom he met at various places along the route. He wanted the farmers to be able to get a return from their crops, the "kind of a return which would not stick in some one else's pockets."

Mr. Roosevelt had special appeal for every kind of voter. He particularly appealed to the colored man at Atlantic City and told his hearers that it was when talking to colored men that he first used the phrase "square deal." He also gave messages to the old soldiers to carry back to their comrades. He commended the Germans and Italians whom he met with along the route, praising them for their industry.

TAFT NEARLY CRUSHED

Crowd of 10,000 Try to Shake President's Hand.

Jersey City, N. J., May 25.—President Taft was greeted by large and enthusiastic throngs in his tour of the North Jersey towns, which ended with big meetings in this city and at Hoboken.

The Taft smile was in evidence again when the president left Trenton. Much of the president's journey led through farming country, and several times he defended his stand for Canadian reciprocity.

At Flemington Mr. Taft pointed to the legislative record of his administration, and asked New Jerseyites to show their belief in its progressive nature by voting for him at the primaries.

"I am here only to ask your judgment," he said. "If you think my administration has done well by the people, I ask your approval, and if you don't think it has, then I expect your disapproval."

In speaking of Colonel Roosevelt's views of constitutional questions, the president said: "Would you have an unsound man with his ideas of constitutional government in the presidency?"

The president made short speeches at Lambertville, Stockton and Frenchtown.

The most enthusiastic reception of the day was accorded the president on his arrival at Phillipsburg. Fully 10,000 persons met the train at the station and followed the presidential party to Ortygia hall, where only about 3000 could gain admission. The doors of the auditorium were jammed with men struggling for admission.

The president was nearly crushed in the crowd that surged about to shake hands with him when he had finished his address. Policemen, secret service men, detectives, members of the presidential party and others had to fight a way out of the hall for the distinguished guest.

Mr. Taft was apparently excited. His collar was wilted and beads of perspiration stood upon his face and neck. Valiantly the men of his party and others struggled to keep back the crowd, many of which thoughtlessly pressed forward, regardless of others in an attempt to get near the president to shake his hand.

HURT IN FALL FROM ROOSEVELT'S AUTO

Major Robbins May Die of Injuries at Resort.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 25.—Major William H. Robbins, of Hammononton, N. J., a member of the Roosevelt party, was hurled from the running board of the colonel's machine when the car brushed through the crowds at Indiana and Pacific avenues on its way to the Million Dollar Pier.

Major Robbins was tossed directly under the wheels of the first car, running behind. Before it would be stopped the machine passed over his body. He suffered probably fatal injuries.

Colonel Roosevelt was the first man to reach Robbins' side, and assisted in carrying him into the Marvel Sanitarium nearby. Dr. Emory Marvel, brother of the Roosevelt candidate of this district, who had been in the car immediately took charge of the case. Major Robbins was rendered unconscious. Several of his ribs were broken, both legs and arms were fractured and it is believed that his vitals were pierced by broken ribs.

QUEEN OVERCOME AT BURIAL

Body of King Frederick VIII. Is Laid to Rest.

Roskilde, Denmark, May 25.—The body of the late King Frederick VIII of Denmark was buried in Denmark's abbey, among tombs of thirty-three of his predecessors on the Danish throne.

Before the body was removed from Copenhagen, where it had lain in state, a family service was held in the chapel of Christianborg Palace. All the members of the royal household attended. The widowed Queen Louisa was so overcome that King Christian X. and his brothers had to support her when she left the chapel.

Two hundred thousand mourners thronged the short route along which the funeral procession passed from the railroad station to the cathedral.

Preceded by a military band playing funeral marches, the hearse was followed by the kings of Denmark, Norway, Sweden and Greece and all the male members of the Danish royal family, with a number of foreign princes and special envoys on foot. Queens and princesses were in carriages.

The service, which lasted an hour was impressive, the feature being the hymns and anthems sung by singers connected with the Royal Opera and a special "Farewell" by the noted Danish composer, P. E. Lange-Moeller.

T. R. GAINS TWO IN OHIO

Colonel Now Has Thirty-four Delegates to Taft's Eight.

Columbus, O., May 25.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt gained two more delegates in the Ohio primaries of Tuesday than has been accorded him according to the official count from the Thirteenth district, making his thirty-four delegates to President Taft's eight.

The official count shows that Thomas Maxwell and W. A. George, Roosevelt delegates, were elected by slight majorities.

NEGRO REBELS RAIDING TOWNS

Inhabitants Robbed and Maltreated by Bands.

ARE STRONG IN SANTIAGO

Malcontents Said to Have Gained Powerful Foothold in That Province.

Havana, Cuba, May 25.—A band of negro rebels has raided many places along the line of the Bayamo railway and robbed and maltreated the inhabitants of El Caney del Sitio.

The district in which the negroes are operating is one of the richest in the island and the officers are greatly troubled.

The situation in Santiago province is most alarming, and it is believed that unless the troops now there and being hurried to the scene act very promptly they will be unable to regain control of affairs and the intervention of the United States will be necessary.

It is generally believed that President Gomez is unable to control the situation and that intervention is almost certain.

The revolt has reached an acute stage. The insurrection continues to spread, having gained a strong foothold in Santiago province during the last twenty-four hours. Foreign lives and property are in danger. The rebels are attacking isolated towns and pillaging and burning plantations.

Two stores in the village of San Marcos, in the vicinity of Guantanamo, belonging to the Fidelity company, an American concern, were pillaged by a rebel band. The rebels carried off all the stock as well as eight horses and $500 in cash.

All of the sugar mills at Chaparra, Santa Lucia and various other towns in Santiago province have been closed and are carefully guarded. General Mendileta is in command of the government forces and orders were sent him to show no quarter to the rebels, who are characterized by the government as brigands.

WANT INTERVENTION

U. S. Doubts Ability of Cuba to Protect American Property.

Washington, May 25.—Abrogation of the Morua law, forbidding the organization of the negroes into a political party, is asserted by the negroes in Cuba to be the basis for their revolutionary movement, according to state department advisers.

They are also declared to be striving for American intervention and the re-election of President Gomez.

While President Gomez declares that he will do all in his power to protect foreign properties, doubt is expressed in official dispatches of his ability to do this, owing to the scarcity of troops.

The island government has said it expects to crush the movement within ten days with the 2000 troops it has in the field, but the negroes are avoiding encounters, their principal object apparently being the destruction of property. Reports of the burning of cane fields near Guantanamo are declared to be exaggerated.

"General" Estanoz, who, it is said, received $10,000 for his services in the Haitian revolution, is in command of the blacks, who are burning and pillaging the sugar cane fields near Guantanamo. All of these fields are Spanish property, but the rebels have on several occasions threatened to attack American reservations, although no such actual outbreak has been reported to the state department.

NEGRO ELKS UNDER BAN

Court Orders That White Organization Has Right to Title.

Albany, N. Y., May 25.—Negroes can no longer use the title "Elks" for their fraternal organization.

The court of appeals has decided that the white brethren, who brought suit to control the title, have exclusive right to it.

Justice Bartlett, in his opinion, says that the negro society may have similar titles for officers and that if they want to use the name of an animal "there is a long list of beasts, birds and fishes which have not been appropriated."

USE FOR "LEFTOVER" STEAK

With Other Ingredients, a Most Palatable Dinner or Luncheon Dish May Be Evolved.

Cold beef steak forms the "motif" of a dish that is greeted with lively applause whenever it appears upon my table. It frequently happens that a large sirloin steak is pruned of the more tender portions which prove enough to satisfy the family appetite, leaving perhaps a pound and a half of juicy solid meat that is yet too tough to please those who know what a good steak is. I have heard house mothers object to buying but make hash or stew of what must be left.

Set every scrap aside until next day, or in winter the next day but one. Trim the meat away from the bone; crack that, and cover with cold water, and set over the fire to simmer into gravy. Do this some hours before you are to use the meat. When all the "goodness" has cooked out of the bone, drain off the broth; set the pan containing it in cold water to throw up the grease to the top. When it is nearly cold skim off the fat; put the liquid into a saucepan and lay in the cubes of meat. Season with a teaspoonful of onion juice; cover closely and cook slowly. In another saucepan cook six lamb's kidneys, halved. In still another stew in just enough water to cover a squab jointed as for fricassee.—Exchange.

HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS

To use sour milk for griddle cakes, never add baking powder, but instead an even teaspoonful of baking soda to each cup of milk.

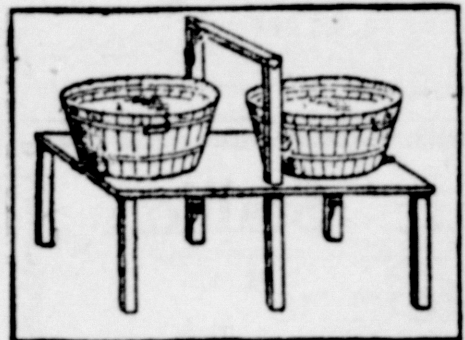

Before washing lace collars baste them closely on a piece of white cloth. They will not be stretched nor torn. If no starch is put in them they will look like new.

When making pies, if you will tuck the upper crust under the lower and press down with a fork, you will never have any trouble with your pie sticking to the plate or the juice running out.

A woman with a badly faded blue shawl gave it a bath in cold water with which a tablespoonful of vinegar had been mixed and the color returned perfectly. Not all dyes yield to this treatment.

To clean straw matting put three pints of bran in two quarts of water and boil. When it is nearly cold wash the matting with it and afterward dry it well with a clean cloth. Add a little salt to the water for white matting and vinegar for red.

WASHING DAY CONVENIENCE

The value of the wash-bench illustrated here is explained in the Housekeeper. By its use the whole washing can be done without lifting the tubs or changing the wringer. The wringer fits over the cross-piece which is high enough for the tubs to slide under. Each tub is fitted with a plug so that they may be emptied by letting the water flow into a pail.

In San Francisco a Man Was Discovered Stealing the Parts of Roller Skates.

Out at the Coliseum skating rink there has been discovered evidence of one of the most patient and hopeful thieves in America. A day or two ago he undertook to steal a pair of roller skates, but the evidence of his work was discovered and he remains in possession of three wheels, a bolt or two and a couple of pieces of metal that can be of no earthly use without the remaining sections of the skates, which remain in possession of the management. To compensate for the loss the Coliseum stands in possession of one felt hat, with the name of the dealer cut out of the band and a gap where the owner's initials were carried.

To evade the regulations of the rink the optimistic crook was obliged to carry an extra hat or cap and a set of tools which enabled him to take the skates apart. The unpolished portions were discovered by special policeman in an unfrequented corner of the pavilion.—San Francisco Bulletin.

GIVES COLLEGES NEARLY A MILLION

Rockefeller Education Board Announces Awards.

New York, May 25.—The General Education Board, to which John D. Rockefeller gave $30,000,000, and which has for its purpose the promotion of higher education throughout the United States, with particular reference to the south, gave away nearly $1,000,000 to schools and colleges at its spring meeting.

Frederick T. Gates presided over the meeting. Among those present were Robert C. Ogden, Walter H. Page and John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

Appropriations, all of them conditional and all for endowment, were made to the following institutions: Beloit college, Beloit, Wis., $100,000; Coe college, Cedar Rapids, Ia., $100,000; McAllester college, St. Paul, Minn., $50,000; University of Rochester, Rochester, N. Y., $200,000.

The George Peabody College for Teachers, at Nashville, Tenn., received $250,000 from the Seaman A. Knapp School of Country Life.

In addition to the appropriations for colleges, the sum of $133,000 was appropriated for demonstration work in agriculture in the southern states under the supervision of Bradford Knapp.

WHEN IS AN EGG BAD?

Great Big Vital Question With Which Supreme Court Will Wrestle.
Washington, May 25.—"When is an egg decayed?" is the latest problem to occupy official attention in Washington.

The supreme court of the United States is called upon to decide the question, and probably will answer next Monday, the date for its consideration.

Preparers of frozen eggs are asking for a ruling that will prevent pure food officers from condemning their product on account of a change in chemical composition, unless it is affirmatively shown that the eggs are unfit for food or injurious to health.

The government has informed the court that the case is of importance, because frozen eggs are used in the manufacture of the greater part of the cakes and pastry sold to the public.

OPERATORS RAISE COAL PRICES

Advance Prepared Sizes 25c and Pea 50c.

INCREASE IS IN EFFECT

Philadelphia Wholesale and Retail Dealers Declare It Is Unwarranted.

Philadelphia, May 25.—A storm of protest from retail and wholesale coal dealers greeted the announcement by the operating companies that prepared sizes of coal would sell at an advance of 25 cents a ton, wholesale, at the mines.

Wholesalers and retailers alike declare that the coal market is in dire confusion, and that so tight is the grip of the operators that there is absolutely no redress.

Following the announcement of the increase by the operators, the Philadelphia Coal Exchange recommends the following prices to the retailers throughout the city, the majority of whom are members: Egg, 87.5c; stove, 87c; nut, 87.25c, and pea, 55.50 a ton. This is an increase of 25 cents a ton over the prices asked at this time last year, except in the case of pea coal, in which the advance is 50 cents.

The official announcement of the advances were made by circulars issued by the different companies. The Reading Coal and Iron company announced an advance on prepared sizes of coal at tidewater of 25 cents a ton, and on tidewater shipments of pea coal 25 cents. On line prices the advance is 25 cents a ton on stove coal, 15 cents on chestnut coal, and 50 cents on pea. No change is made on steam or rice and buckwheat coal.

The Lehigh Valley announced an increase of 25 cents a ton on tide and line prices for the prepared sizes, and 25 cents a ton on pea coal.

Other companies did not make an announcement, and it is understood that they will not, but they will follow the trend of the trade and sell at market prices.

For possibly the first time in many years the Reading Coal and Iron company did not take the initiative in making the advance. Previous to this the company generally set the pace and the others followed. The circular issued by Williams & Peters, of New York, on Thursday, was closely followed instead by all companies, and while there was no concerted action on the part of the operators, the prices, so the dealers declare, will assume a uniform basis within the next two weeks.

No hesitancy is felt by the retail dealers in declaring the advance unjust and unwarranted. It is felt that in advancing pea coal 50 cents a ton a direct slap is taken at the same class of people to whom operators a short time ago were forced to grant an increase in wages averaging 10 per cent. It is said by dealers that they are unable to figure out just how much of an advance in the price of coal would be commensurate with the advance in wages granted the miners, but the consensus of opinion is that no such prices as have been announced are necessary.

Notwithstanding the attitude of the trade in general, the producers declare the advance is reasonable and does not even cover the costs that were forced upon them by the recent suspension and the expense and extra labor of getting the mines into working condition again.

CHEAPER MONEY FOR THE FARMERS

May introduce the European System Here.

Washington, May 25.—Cheaper money for the borrowing American farmer is the object of an investigation recently undertaken by the state department through five of its ambassadors in Europe.

In America the farmer pays a higher rate of interest for his money, proportionate to the security which he offers in his farmland mortgage, than almost any other class of investors in the country. In Europe the farmer borrows on equal terms with the biggest railroad, industrial corporation or municipality.

President Taft wants to introduce the European system in this country, so that the American farmer can raise money on his farm through a bond saleable in any part of the country. Cheap money thinks Mr. Taft, will put it in the power of the small farmer or the tenant who wants to start out for himself, to get his farm on a paying basis without shouldering a staggering burden at the outset.

President Taft is optimistic that in this plan he can give the investor a safe place for his money, and at the same time apply that money in the development of what he considers one of the most important industries to which the United States owes protection.

NO JURY TRIAL FOR THAW

Case of His Sanity to Be Tried Before Justice Keogh.
White Plains, N. Y., May 25.—"Trial by jury is denied," is the only memorandum filed by Justice Martin J. Keogh in the Thaw case. This decision was placed on file here.

It was generally expected that the justice in passing on the motion for a jury trial would go into details, and the five word opinion filed was a surprise.

As the case stands, unless some other steps are taken to have the case tried by a jury, the question of Thaw's sanity will be tried before Justice Keogh on June 3.
